Newsletter 5 1st February 2019

Dear Parents and Carers

Thank you all for your patience and understanding, and for being extra careful this morning, whilst dealing with bad weather conditions. The children have had a lot of 'Snow Day' fun today, with toast and hot chocolate too. This has inspired some great writing in a variety of genres: a day in the life of a penguin; poems; diary entries; recounts and descriptions.

IMPORTANT for Tuesday of this coming week –please do go along to the parent information session on e-safety— whatever the age of your children, this is always a very up to date, informative and worthwhile session. All the parents who have attended previously have found the content valuable.

School Events this week:

We had 4 children who were 'Treasure Hunters' at Chichester Cathedral with Mrs Wakefield on Monday for an active history afternoon. We had 2 children who were 'News Reporters' at a literacy enrichment day at Portfield School on Tuesday with Louise Jarvis, Leo and Emily's mum, who had the opportunity to work with one of the Country's leading children's authors, Matt Whyman. We also had 9 children who took part in the Sports Partnership Cross Country event at Bishop Luffa on Wednesday with Megs Wilburn, Holly's mum. At this event, we are pleased to announce, that Holly and Ashton both qualified to represent the area at the Sussex Cross Country Finals on Friday 15th March in Brighton.

Thank you to all of our parents for supporting us with trips, visits, clubs and transport. Without your help we wouldn't be able to offer the children such a wide range of opportunities.
