Over the next few weeks we would like you to get sketching and drawing. Each week we will post an artist or illustrator to draw along with and a gallery feature to explore. Draw: Draw with Rob Explore: Tate Georgia OKeefe	Have a look at the Guinness World Record site: https://kids.guinnessworldrecords.com/activities They have world record attempts taking place each week and you can get involved. Have a look at their kids pages too for fun activities to try at home.	Léon le caméléon https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=trsEbqJ9L3E Leon the chameleon is a cheeky scamp! He is always changing colour. Watch the clip and then draw your own Leon. Could you turn it into a Where's Wally picture and have Leon hidden/camouflaged for your family to find?	Each week you will have a song to listen to which relates to our PSHCE learning. We will also be posting some music for you to listen to and some information about some musicians and composers. Song: Superhero by The Script Music: Listen to this piece of music. Which instruments can you name in the orchestra? Tritsch Tratsch Polka by Johan Strauss Can you find out who Strauss was? Strauss facts Try and find some of his other pieces of music to listen to.	We have heard a lot about heroes in recent weeks. Have a think about what you would say a hero is. Can you make a list of the qualities they need? Do they have to be extraordinary?
