Draw: Draw with Jim Explore: Choose your own artist to look at	Today is going to be a planning day. Devise some challenges for your family and make them some certificates but don't write them yet! You'll be challenging them next week. See the attached sheet of what you'll need to plan. Each challenge can only be 1 minute! You could google '1 minute challenges' for ideas or use some from the Guinness world record site.	Léon le caméléon https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=trsEbqJ9L3E Write down all the colours that are mentioned in the clip. Make sure you know what they are in French and English. Then have a go at writing your own sentence... Rose comme un cochon (This means pink like a pig) What else is pink? If you are stuck for the French word use: https://translate.google.co.uk to help you with the word you are trying to find (it does NOT need to rhyme.)	Song: Stronger Music: Violins! Listen to this first clip. Which is your favourite out of the 4 pieces of music? 4 violins Then listen to this next one. It is interesting how changing the background percussion can make a violin sound so different. Lindsey Sterling	Create a postcard to someone you think is a hero and tell them why you think that. Fold a piece of paper in half and stick it together. On one side draw a colourful picture which has something to do with your hero and then draw a line down the middle of the other side. Write to your hero on the left side and put their address on the right. Then you can post it to them. Your hero could be a firefighter, a nurse, a teacher, your parents, your grandparents, a friend.
